Songs & More

I Am Hungry!

Tune: Frère Jacques

I am hungry! (I am hungry)
What should I eat? (What should I eat?)
I think I'll have some pizza
(I think I'll have some pizza)
Without any meat! (Without any meat).
I think I'll have some soup
(I think I'll have some soup)
With lots of heat! (With lots of heat).
I think I'll have some ice cream
(I think I'll have some ice cream)
Cold and sweet! (Cold and sweet)

Apples and Bananas

I like to eat, eat, eat apples and bananas
I like to eat, eat, eat apples and bananas
A
I like to eat, eat, eat ay-ples and ba-nay-nays
I like to eat, eat, eat ay-ples and ba-nay-nays

Mary Had A Taco Truck

Tune: Mary Had a Little Lamb

Mary had a taco truck, taco truck, taco truck
Mary had a taco truck; its roof had a big taco.
And everywhere that Mary went,
Mary went, Mary went
Everywhere that Mary went
A crowd was sure to go.
They followed her to the food truck fest,
Food truck fest, food truck fest.
They followed her to the food truck fest
Where she won the big grand prize.
Her tacos were the very best, very best, very best
Her tacos were the very best
It's not a big surprise!

When I Close My Eyes

Tune: Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star

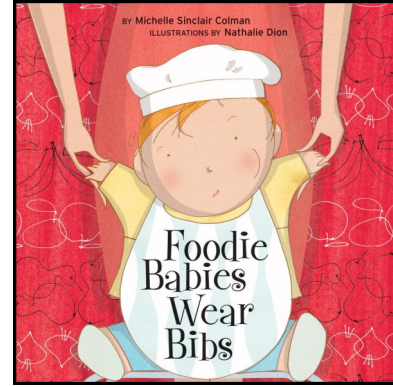

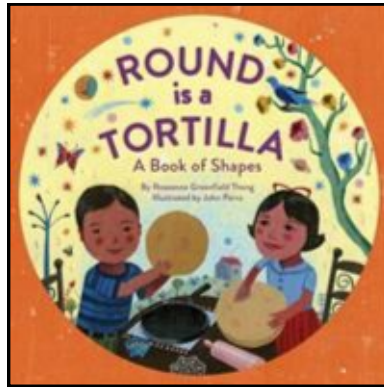

When I close my eyes to sleep,
I dream dreams and count my sheep.
I know I can be whatever,
I choose and build—I am so clever!
Come morning, what will I do?
I will make my dreams come true!

Every Child Ready to Read Skill

Writing

Babies - Give your babies opportunities throughout the day to pull, push and grasp.

Toddlers - Simple activities like grasping your finger, holding a rattle, and playing with their food help support the skills and development they will need when they start learning how to write. Point out written letters and words on signs during outings to help your child understand that letters and print have meaning.

Preschoolers - Write your child's name on any art or coloring project they do and talk about each letter as you write it (and once they have started writing letters, encourage them to write their names themselves)
