Hey Diddle Diddle (Calibri 12,

Hey diddle diddle, the cat and the fiddle,
The cow jumped over the moon.
The little dog laughed to see such sport,
And the dish ran away with the spoon.

Every Child Ready to Read Skill

Talking

Conversation skills are important for children's development and well-being. Being able to have conversations helps children make friends, be listened to, ask for what they need, and develop strong relationships with others.

Conversation skills are about being able to talk and listen well. This involves starting conversations - for example, with a greeting like "Hello," or knowing how to get attention in the right way - for example, by saying "Excuse me."

It also includes using eye contact, taking turns talking and listening, speaking politely, and knowing when to stop talking.
